“Time to start your bidding!” is the phrase used in the new title, Dark Emotions 1.2, by Electronic Arts studio Genetic Trend. Electronic Arts recently loaded this free update on the iPod Touch software update center, hoping that it would bring the game back up to date, in an effort to keep its developer, Genetic Trend, from going bankrupt for the second time in as many years. This is a top flight match-3 puzzle/strategy game that at its core is a simple concept – you try to carefully arrange your deck of cards into your favor as they flow into the next course. The developer has crafted an intuitive and accessible puzzler that draws strength from solid gameplay mechanics and an expert execution.
